DEAR SIR/MADAM

REF: APPLICATION FOR SECONDARY SCHOOL FEES

I wish to apply for assistance of scholarship in your office. I am thirteen years old and I am in standard eight at Kambala Primary School. And soon I will be sitting for my final K.C.P.E examination this year. I am an industrious and well behaved pupil, with an outstanding performance. For instance I scored AAA marks in the recent Mock examination.

I come from a family of four siblings. Both of my parents are alive. Three of us are in upper primary and one is in nursery school. My father is a cobbler and my mother is a peasant farmer and sometimes my mother goes to the rich neighbours to ask a job of washing their houses and clothes. Sometimes I and my siblings, we are forced to search for metallic and plastic objects to sell to have money and buy food.

We live in a cheap double room in one of the rental houses outside town. Even sometimes we survive on one meal a day or go without breakfast before going to school. I have faith that I will score high marks and you will assist me to pursue my dream. I therefore tender in my application for your favoured consideration.

Thanking you in advance.

Your's Faithfull

HENRY. MWANGI
